About this property

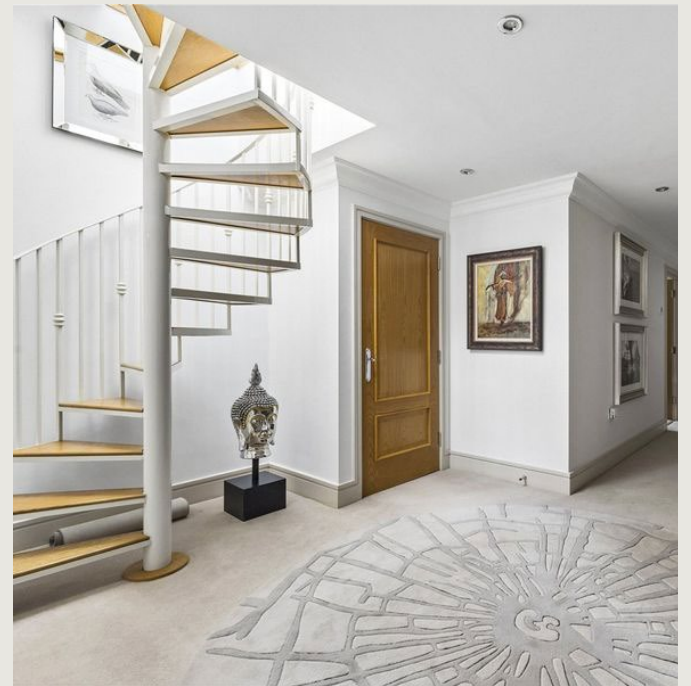

Brockenhurst House is a prestigious gated development built to an exceptional standard by Millgate Homes. Set within approximately one acre of beautifully maintained gardens with a residents' gazebo.

The development features an impressive marble entrance hall, staircase and lift access to all floors.

This penthouse apartment offers spacious open-plan living with sitting, dining and study areas, a bespoke kitchen with island, and two en suite double bedrooms, including a principal suite with a dressing room and south-west facing balcony.

A huge feature of the penthouse is that it benefits from a private roof terrace with elevated views and provides excellent space for entertaining and al fresco dining, while the striking spiral staircase floods the entrance hallway with natural light.

Further benefits include two underground parking spaces, secure private storage and visitor parking.
