Set on the prestigious Victoria Gates development of just six luxury properties, this newly built property offers 4628 square feet of accommodation in total and commands breath-taking far reaching views on a generous plot with an adjoining paddock available by separate negotiation.

Located behind a secure gated entrance with wide driveway for numerous vehicles leading to the detached double garage with large office / gymnasium above, Victoria lodge is a commanding property constructed of reclaimed aged stone with all the benefits of a newly built property, having ground source heat pump central heating, underfloor heating to the ground floor and double glazed sash windows throughout .

The majestic entrance consists of a vast glazed structure which frames the entrance door leading to a vaulted ceiling hallway with impressive galleried landing above. The state of the art bespoke kitchen will not disappoint with a whole range of high end luxury appliances in this expansive open plan contemporary living dining kitchen. This is in addition to two large reception rooms as well as an opulent master suite, two double bedrooms which share a Jack & Jill ensuite and two further double bedrooms served by the luxury house bathroom which has both a full bath and wet room style shower area.

Externally the property has wrap around gardens including a large stone flagged alfresco dining terrace and a raised, flat lawned area which leads to the large paddock which can be available by separate negotiation.
