Price £450,000

Built in the late 1980s and originally serving as the village shop and Post Office before later being converted into a B&B, Meadow View is a substantial detached home full of warmth, character and flexibility. Offering generous and adaptable accommodation, it is a home that could suit a growing family, multigenerational living, those working from home, or anyone seeking a property that can evolve with changing needs over time.

The layout is both spacious and versatile, currently comprising a dining room, garden room, office, breakfast kitchen, utility room and cloakroom, together with two ground-floor double bedrooms, each with its own en-suite shower room. To the first floor there is a large living room, three further double bedrooms and a house bathroom, creating a home that balances family togetherness with the space to enjoy peace and privacy when needed.

Outside, the property offers off-road parking for several vehicles, an integral garage, and modest gardens to the front and rear, with the rear enjoying a good degree of privacy. Whether for family gatherings, quiet mornings with a coffee, or simply unwinding at the end of the day, the outdoor space adds to the home's welcoming and practical appeal.

Set within easy reach of the Lake District, Meadow View is ideally placed to enjoy one of the country's most beautiful and sought-after landscapes. From scenic walks and weekend adventures to waterside days out and the charm of nearby villages and market towns, the location offers a wonderful lifestyle balance of rural beauty, outdoor living and everyday convenience. It is a setting that will particularly appeal to those looking for a home that offers not just space, but a way of life.

Further benefits include hardwood-framed double glazing, a multi-fuel stove in the living room, an air source heat pump serving the central heating system, and 21 solar panels with a feed-in tariff in place until 2036.

Location

From Penrith, head south on the A6 and drive through Eamont Bridge. At the mini roundabout, in Eamont Bridge, turn right, signposted to Ullswater. Follow the road past Yanwath and on entering the village of Tirril, Meadow View is on the right, just beyond Chambers Garage.

Amenities

In the village of Tirril there is a well patronised public house, a village hall supporting community events, a garage with filling station and a church nearby in Barton. A local bus service connects the village with Penrith, 3 miles and Pooley Bridge 2.5 miles.

Penrith is a popular market town, having excellent transport links through the M6, A66, A6 and the main West coast railway line. There is a population of around 17,000 people and facilities include: infant, junior and secondary schools. There are 5 supermarkets and a good range of locally owned and national high street shops. Leisure facilities include: a leisure centre with; swimming pool, climbing wall, indoor bowling, badminton courts and a fitness centre as well as; golf, rugby and cricket clubs. There is also a 3 screen cinema and Penrith Playhouse. Penrith is known as the Gateway to the North Lakes and is conveniently situated for Ullswater and access to the fells, benefiting from the superb outdoor recreation opportunities.

Services

Mains water, drainage and electricity are connected to the property. Heating is via an air source heat pump and there are solar panels on a feed in tariff.

Tenure

The property is freehold and the council tax is band E
