Other shared facilities include a south facing picnic area with far reaching views and toilet and shower facilities.

LOCATION

The Herbert Woods Marina is set at the very heart of the Norfolk Broads in the popular village of Potter Heigham, well known for the medieval bridge, thought to date back to 1385, and Lathams, the biggest discount store on the Broads. The village also benefits from two pubs, a coffee shop, tea room/restaurant, large fishing tackle shop, a Post Office / general store and a fish and chip shop.

There is access to the entire Broads network via the River Thurne, leading to Hickling, Ludham, Horning, Wroxham and beyond.

HERBERT WOODS MARINA

Herbert Woods Marina offers the full range of boatyard facilities including pump out, refuelling, gas, crange with fully qualified marine engineers, and boat builders on site to help meet all servicing and repair needs, along with an upholstery shop.
