LOCATION

The historic market town of Bridgnorth offers an extensive selection of facilities including shops, primary and secondary schooling, health services, post offices and numerous pubs, cafés and restaurants. There is also a good selection of sports clubs, weekend markets and local attractions such as the Severn Valley Railway, River Severn and the Cliff Railway. Conduit Lane is a much sought after location being within walking distance to the town's High Street and Castlefield's primary school with an abundance of walks and near-by public transport routes to local and regional centres.

ACCOMMODATION

Entering into a through hallway, this spacious area has wooden flooring and stairs rising to the first floor with a modern guest cloakroom/WC. The front lounge has a bay window to the front elevation, window to the side and double doors opening through into the dining area. The kitchen is fitted with matching base and wall cabinets, sink unit with work tops over along with fitted appliances to include an oven, microwave, dishwasher and a gas hob with extractor hood along with a useful pantry cupboard. Open plan off the kitchen is the dining area with double French doors opening out to the garden. An inner hall leads off with integral access into the garage, a separate utility room having an inset stainless steel sink unit and the provision for a washing machine and dryer and a sliding door into the study with a door and window out to the garden.

From the hall stairs rise to the first floor landing with the principal double bedroom having a bay window to the front elevation and fitted wardrobes. A second guest double bedroom enjoys elevated views to the rear across to town. There is a third bedroom and a spacious family bathroom comprising a modern white suite to include a bath, walk in shower, WC, bidet and wash hand basin with vanity cupboard below.
