

Ashfields, Alma Road, Reigate

£275,000

Thoughtfully updated throughout in recent years, this wonderfully spacious retirement apartment ticks all the boxes. Ashfields is a welcoming community with well maintained gardens and a communal conservatory to enjoy a coffee with friend and neighbours.

Located a short walk from Reigate station and local shops, the Ashfields development has been beautifully designed, with attractive communal garden areas providing lots of lovely quiet spots to sit in and enjoy the fresh air or gather with friends for a coffee and chat in the communal conservatory.

Inside, this apartment has been updated throughout in the past three years, including a new kitchen, new carpets, re decorating and two new bathrooms, making it exceptionally clean and tidy for someone to move straight in and enjoy.

The living space is generous, with a large window overlooking the pretty communal gardens to the rear. Being West facing, it is bathed in afternoon and evening light.

Both bedrooms are good sized double rooms. If you don't require a second bedroom, it could easily be used as a separate dining room to enable larger family gatherings. The main bedroom has fitted wardrobes providing plenty of storage.

The en suite shower room has been tastefully updated and has a large, built in storage cupboard. The main bathroom now has a large walk in shower, making it easy for anyone with limited mobility. The kitchen is bright and airy with ample storage and built in appliances, there is also space for a small breakfast table against the wall.
