Property Description

The ground floor is centred around a welcoming lounge and separate dining room, creating useful spaces for both relaxed family time and entertaining. The fitted kitchen sits conveniently alongside the dining area, making it easy to keep everyday family life connected.

Upstairs are three bedrooms, including a well-sized main bedroom, a further double bedroom and a smaller third bedroom that would work particularly well as a child's bedroom, home office or study. A family bathroom completes the first floor.

The layout offers the flexibility needed for modern households, while the semi-detached format and three-bedroom arrangement make this an especially practical choice for those wanting to put down roots in a well-established residential setting.

About the area

Maidstone Road is well placed within an established residential area of Gillingham, offering a convenient balance of everyday amenities, good transport links, schools and green open spaces.

The surrounding area provides a practical setting for both families and professionals, with a range of local shops, supermarkets and everyday services within easy reach. Larger shopping facilities can be found at Hempstead Valley, while nearby Rainham also provides a useful selection of shops, cafés and amenities.

For families, there is a good choice of educational provision in the surrounding area, with St Margaret's Infant and Junior Schools, Miers Court Primary School and The Howard School among the schools nearby.

Transport connections are another notable advantage. Rainham railway station is approximately 1.3 km away, providing rail services towards London and the wider Kent network, while Gillingham and Chatham are also accessible for further transport connections.
