LIFE IN BOLSOVER

Bolsover is a charming historic market town offering a lovely balance of traditional character and everyday convenience. The town centre has a good selection of independent shops, cafés, pubs and places to eat, alongside essential local amenities and services. The historic Market Place provides a lovely focal point, while Old Bolsover Yard offers a collection of independent shops and craft businesses. For a wider choice of shopping, supermarkets and leisure facilities, nearby Chesterfield and Mansfield are both within easy reach.

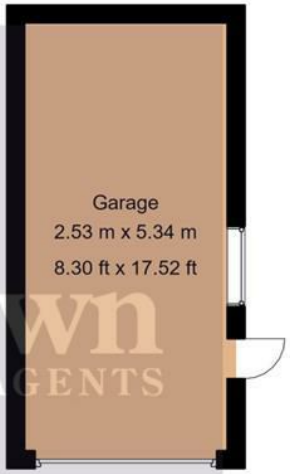

There is plenty to enjoy in the surrounding area, particularly for those who love getting outdoors. The impressive Bolsover Castle is one of the town's best-known landmarks, with beautiful grounds, fascinating history and far-reaching views across the Derbyshire countryside. Carr Vale Nature Reserve is also close by, offering peaceful walking routes and opportunities to enjoy local wildlife, while the wider area provides access to countryside trails, woodland walks and family-friendly days out at places such as Hardwick Hall and Creswell Crags.

Bolsover is also well positioned for commuting, with the A632 running through the town and convenient access to the M1 via junction 29A, making journeys towards Chesterfield, Mansfield and Sheffield straightforward. Regular bus services connect Bolsover with Chesterfield and surrounding towns and villages, while Chesterfield railway station provides further connections for those travelling further afield. Combining historic charm, local amenities and excellent access to the surrounding countryside, Bolsover is a lovely place to call home.
