1 Bigert Mire Cottage

Broughton-in-Furness

Tucked away in an elevated position with a peaceful Lakeland hamlet, Bigert Mire Cottage is an attractive, traditional three bedroom detached property offering an exceptional blend of timeless charm and breathtaking natural beauty. With spectacular, far-reaching views across the Duddon Valley. The property is extremely well proportioned and well presented benefiting from many original features including exposed beam, spiral stone staircase, latched doors together with modern appointments including underfloor heating.

The property has two reception rooms with the open plan living/kitchen/diner and benefiting from a secondary lounge/dining room. Additionally the ground floor it has a highly useful multifunctional room primarily used as a utility room/boot room/office with adjoining cloakroom.

The first floor has three bedrooms of which two are spacious doubles and the third is a single bunk room. All three rooms take advantage of the superb panoramic fells and country views.

Detached from the cottage is a paddock and delightful enclosed garden, with the benefit of splendid views of the valley. There is a parking space next to the gable end and parking is also available within the paddock area.

The Duddon Valley is a beautiful and peaceful unspoilt area in the southwest corner of the Lake District National Park. It is set amongst the beautiful Furness Fells and close to the picturesque village of Broughton (3 miles), voted village of the year 2002, and the market town of Ulverston. Good road links via the A595 and A590 trunk road connect it to the M6 Barrow-in-Furness and north to Scotland. The valley can also be approached from the heart of the National Park either from Coniston (10 miles) Ambleside (18 miles) and the central passes of Hard Knott and Wrynose.

Internal viewing is essential to fully appreciate its unique atmosphere and unmatched setting.
