Behind its handsome red-brick façade, the property unfolds into a warm and inviting home of considerable charm, where original proportions, fireplaces and natural light create an atmosphere that is both timeless and welcoming. Thoughtfully arranged to suit modern lifestyles, the accommodation includes four generous double bedrooms, balanced reception space and a wonderfully established rear garden.

From the moment you step inside, the home reveals an appealing blend of classic Victorian architecture and relaxed contemporary living. High ceilings, elegant proportions and large sash-style windows allow light to pour through the interiors, while wood-burning stoves and traditional detailing add warmth and character throughout.

At the heart of the home lies an impressive open-plan kitchen and dining space designed for everyday family life and entertaining alike. The kitchen is fitted with classic Shaker-style cabinetry and a sociable breakfast bar, creating a relaxed central hub. The adjoining dining area offers ample space for gathering with family and friends, centred around a charming fireplace and wood-burning stove that brings a cosy focal point during the cooler months.

To the front of the property, the separate sitting room provides a more traditional retreat, complete with another fireplace and wood-burning stove, offering a calm and comfortable setting for quieter evenings.

Particularly noteworthy is the substantial ground-floor bedroom suite, an exceptionally spacious and accessible double bedroom with direct access to the rear garden and its own en suite shower room. This versatile space would suit multi-generational living, visiting guests or those seeking single-level accessibility without compromise.

The first floor provides three further double bedrooms, all generously proportioned and filled with natural light. The principal bedroom enjoys access to a Jack and Jill bathroom, while the remaining bedrooms are served by well-appointed family facilities, ensuring the home functions equally well for family life or hosting guests.

A setting where original features and natural light create a warm, welcoming atmosphere.

The rear garden is a true highlight of the property. Mature, private and beautifully established, offering a wonderful sense of peace and seclusion. Thoughtfully planted borders, lawns and seating areas create an idyllic outdoor setting for summer dining, entertaining or simply enjoying the tranquillity of the surroundings.

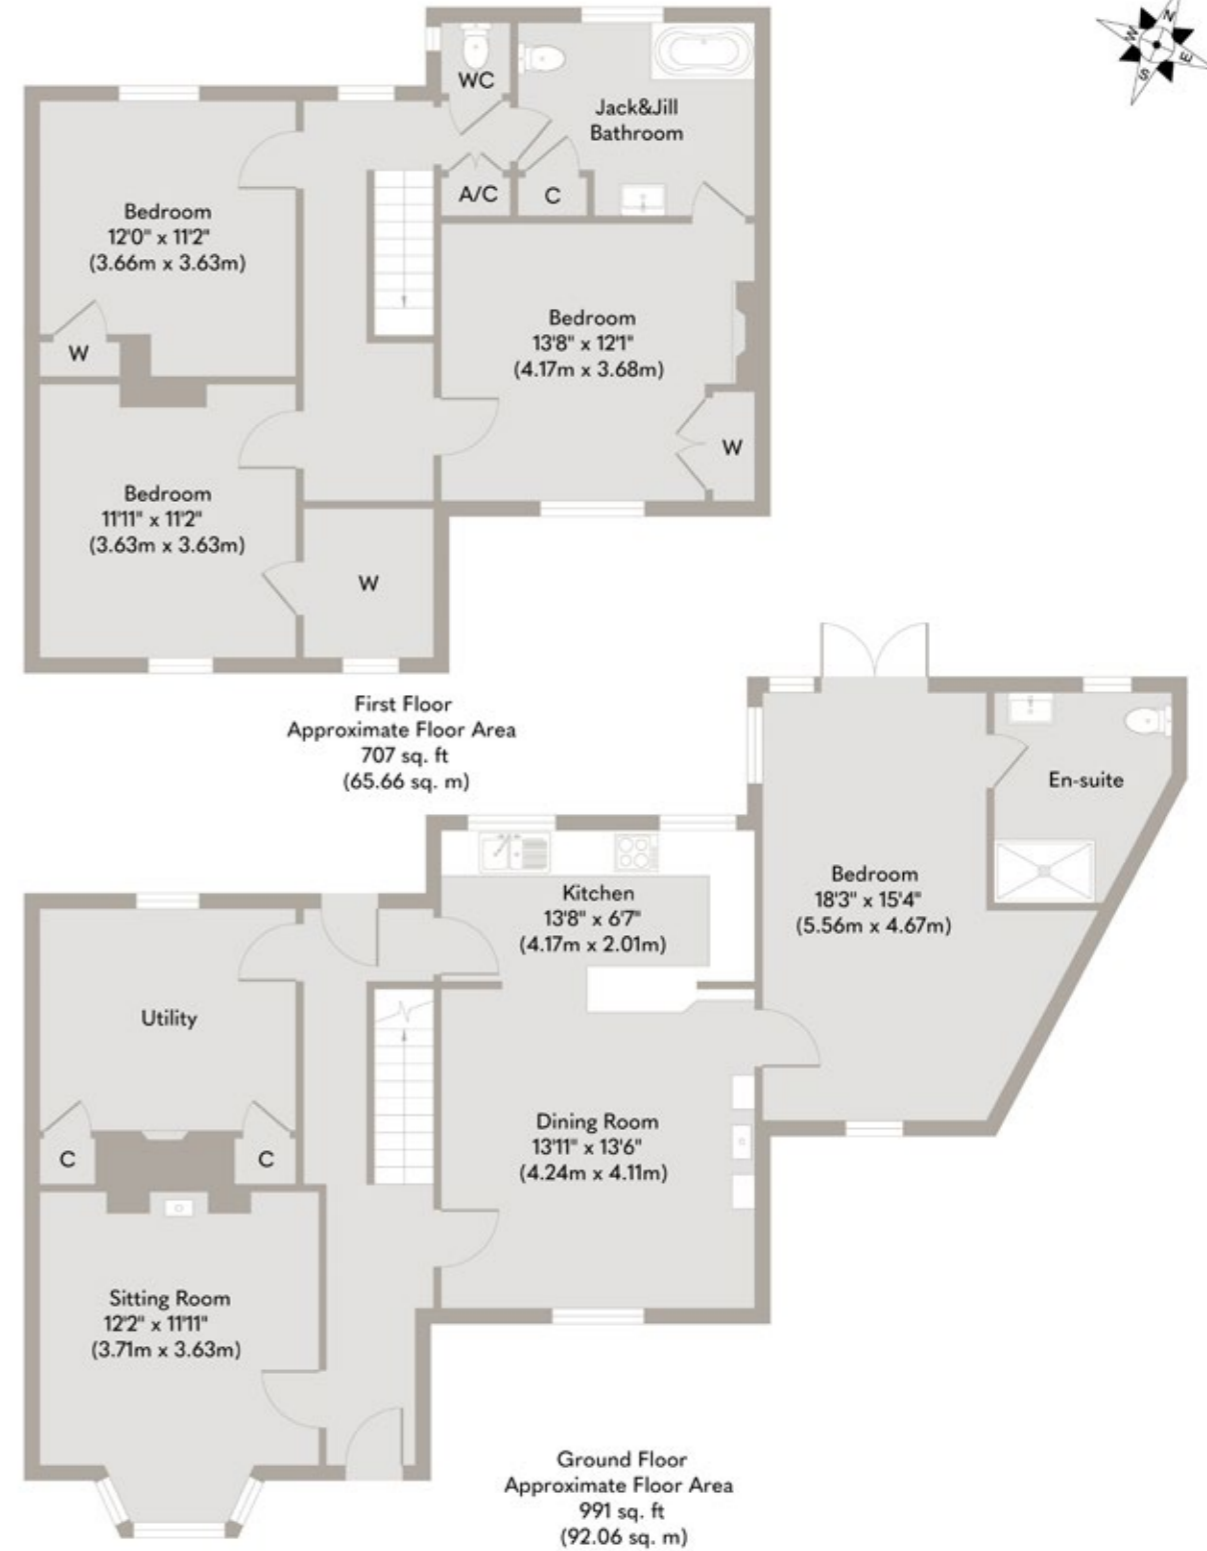

To the front, the property benefits from private off-street parking, a valuable feature so close to the centre of Holt.

Holt

A STRONG SENSE OF COMMUNITY
AND A FINE MARKET TOWN

Holt thrives on a strong sense of community, supported by proud residents and local businesses. Many champion the 'Love Holt' initiative, celebrating the independent shops that bring vibrancy to the Georgian town centre. The town hosts numerous local events throughout the year, including the Holt Festival and the 1940s Weekend, which takes over the town and the heritage 'Poppy Line' railway running between Holt and Sheringham.

Holt boasts traditional shops like a butcher, fishmonger, and greengrocer. It even has its own department store and food hall, Bakers and Larners, a local landmark run by the same family since 1770. Chic boutiques and luxe lifestyle stores fill the town and its surrounding yards, offering beautiful items for your home and wardrobe. Norfolk Natural Living, known for locally made fragrances, is a notable stop.

Life in Holt is leisurely, with numerous spots to enjoy a coffee or a meal. Byfords café, believed to be the oldest house in town, is a central landmark and an ideal place to watch the world go by. There's no rush—relax and savour country life! The town also hosts the historic Gresham's School.

Holt features an abundance of Georgian properties, especially around the town centre. Further out, you'll find leafy roads with stylish, detached 1930s family homes and well-designed contemporary houses that blend with the countryside. For those wanting to reconnect with nature, Holt Country Park and Spout Hills offer heathland and green spaces.

Holt is one of Norfolk's finest market towns, offering the perfect spot to enjoy country life. With easy access to the coast and city, if this sounds like your kind of place, let us help you find your next property.
