Horrabridge

Yelverton

Offered with NO ONWARD CHAIN, in a private setting with no immediate neighbours, being ripe for modernisation and updating, is this stunning period, detached south facing farmhouse with circa 12.86 acres of pasture, meadowland, together with frontage and fishing rights on the River Walkham. The flexible four bedroom accommodation boasts two reception rooms and two kitchens, formerly two self contained cottages which could easily be returned to two family occupation if required. Level formal gardens, range of outbuildings which are in need of attention, including an open fronted pole barn and stabling. Perfect for those equestrian enthusiasts.

This family home still has many period character features such as sash windows with deep sills and window seats, high ceilings, picture rails and fireplaces. Two entrance porches, one with entrance hall and stairs to first floor. A principal kitchen fitted with wall and base units, door to a sitting room with fireplace and a living room together with a second kitchen and adjoining porch/boot room to the rear. To the back of the sitting room is a rear entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor, where there are four double bedrooms and a shower room, together with a family bathroom.

The private sweeping entrance driveway leads to the front and the rear of the house. Ample parking for many vehicles. Formal level gardens to the front and side are a particular delight with many mature trees. A 65'ft open sided barn and further stable block, currently in need of attention. Further garage to the rear of the house with store and WC. The land is wrapped by its own predominantly level pasture meadow, with a separate access gate leading to the main road. River frontage with fishing rights. A haven for wildlife, birds and visiting deer. There is a public footpath running alongside the southern boundary, with privacy hedge.
