Strawberry Store is a beautifully presented four-bedroom barn conversion set within a select courtyard development on the edge of the village of Rosley. Thoughtfully extended to the ground floor, the property offers a superb open-plan living and entertaining space, four generous bedrooms (master en-suite), and a large private rear garden with uninterrupted countryside views. Well placed for both Wigton and Carlisle, this is a versatile family home that combines characterful barn features — exposed beams, vaulted ceilings — with a modern, low-maintenance finish throughout. No onward chain.

GROUND FLOOR

A welcoming entrance hallway with laminate flooring and a useful understairs storage cupboard leads through to a downstairs WC/cloakroom and a well-equipped utility room (with scope to double as a home office or studio). The heart of the home is the open-plan family living space: a cosy lounge centred around a cast iron stove set in an inglenook fireplace, flowing through to a stunning sun room with Indian sandstone flooring, underfloor heating, and sliding French doors onto the garden. A modern fitted kitchen completes the ground floor, featuring a range of units, a five-ring gas hob, and an electric oven, with views over the garden and countryside beyond.

Attic Room 26'4" x 6'7" (8.05 x 2.02)

Outside

To the front, the property sits within a courtyard with designated parking for two cars and a single garage (housing the oil tank). The rear garden is a real highlight — around 80 feet in length, laid mainly to lawn with an Indian sandstone patio, additional decked seating area, and a garden shed, all enjoying lovely open views across the countryside.

Location

Rosley is a quiet, sought-after village setting, with the market town of Wigton around a ten-minute drive away and the city of Carlisle approximately 20 minutes by car — offering a good balance of rural tranquillity and everyday convenience.

Services

Mains electricity and water connected, with a private (Klargester) drainage system. Oil-fired central heating, with LPG gas also available for cooking. The property is held on a long leasehold, with 965 years remaining and a management fee of £75 per month. Council Tax Band D.
