"Our house has been such a lovely place to call home. It's central but quiet, so day-to-day life feels peaceful and easy. We've loved the views across Montpelier, spending sunny evenings on the terrace, having friends over or reading on the sofa. In winter, there's nothing better than getting cosy in front of the wood burner. We've watched fireworks from the roof, and loved being able to walk down to Bianchis for a Sunday lunch."
