what the owners will miss

"It's been a big decision to move, but the time is right for us. We'll miss sitting on the patio in the afternoon sun, looking across the park, we'll miss the neighbours and dog walkers that make the area so friendly and our favourite restaurant, the Italian Kitchen, in Hanham, which is a short walk away."

just a thought...

If you hadn't considered this area before, this could be the one! Surprisingly, conveniently located with a range of local amenities nearby, this character home offers everything a modern family could want. Genuinely one not to be missed!
