Located on one of the most sought after River roads in Surbiton, this three bedroom property is presented to the market in fantastic condition. It has been thoughtfully refurbished throughout. The River Thames is within 0.1 miles and Surbiton station with it's fast links to Waterloo is just under half a mile.

The ground floor comprises a generous front sitting room, perfect as a snug. The open plan living/kitchen/diner inclusive of a breakfast island acts as the centre piece of the house. The bi-fold doors seamlessly join the internal and external of the house and there is also a W.C and utility room.
