EXTERNALLY:

This charming detached bungalow enjoys an enviable residential position, situated within a quiet and highly sought-after cul-de-sac, conveniently located close to an abundance of local amenities and popular transport links.

The front aspect benefits from dropped kerb vehicular access leading onto a low-level double gated driveway, finished in concrete and gravel, providing off-street parking for multiple vehicles. The frontage is complemented by a low-level boundary wall and fenced side boundaries, with access to the obscure uPVC double-glazed utility room door and entrance porch.

The wonderfully well-appointed rear garden is a particularly attractive feature of this delightful bungalow, offering a generous outdoor space with an excellent degree of privacy. Promoting a great chance for a further extension. Subject to relevant planning approvals. Predominantly laid to lawn, the garden is complemented by a selection of established shrubs, creating a pleasant and inviting setting. A central concrete pathway extends towards the bottom of the garden, where there is a paved hardstanding area with provision for a garden shed. A generous paved seating and entertaining area is conveniently accessed via the uPVC double-glazed door from the dining room, providing an ideal space for outdoor dining, relaxation and entertaining, with an outside tap. The garden enjoys a high degree of privacy, enclosed by fully fenced side and rear boundaries, and is further enhanced by far-reaching views towards St. Giles Church.
