A wrought iron gate incorporating its name 'The Roses' opens to an inviting rose garden with several steps and a handrail to the honeysuckle-clad front porch.

As you enter into the entrance hall, the theme of originality begins. The traditional decor of the property, built in 1925, runs into the dining room, with a view to the cottage-style garden to the rear, and built-in original storage cupboards. Viewed as a blank canvas to personalise, this room offers the potential opportunity to create a spacious dining area.

From here, enter through the panelled bi-fold doors which separate the living room from the dining room. Featuring a large bay window with radiator below, this room offers ample space for sofas and a focal point living flame gas fire has a traditional wooden surround, mantelpiece and quartz hearth.

The kitchen is compact yet thoughtfully designed overlooking the rear garden. A Sharp dishwasher, Hot Point hob and cooker, stainless steel sink, range of base units and white tile splash backs are in place. Wooden wall shelving aids storage solutions.

Downstairs is the basement area which offers a large array of storage options. The large room has plumbing for a washing machine, a Bosch fridge-freezer and airing cupboard housing the water tank and the Vaillant boiler. The room beside this is smaller and houses the consumer unit, water meter and a pantry.

Upstairs to the first floor, bedroom 1 is traditionally finished, with cornice-pelmeted windows looking over Craig Walk and ample space for furnishings and a king-sized bed. This room is bright with natural light. Bedroom 2 is also a double with a rear outlook to a private wooded glade.

The bathroom is finished in a contemporary style with vanity sink and a fitted towel heater, WC, bath with shower over and a Showerlux bottle holder for convenience. There is an original cupboard for storage.

Following the stairs up to the second floor, a dormer window in the roof allows natural light and enhances the space. Bedroom 3 is sizeable, has built-in storage and a dormer window. The original fireplace is still present, adding a traditional touch again. The room is currently used as a twin room. It offers views to the fells and access to the loft. Bedroom 4 also has rooftop views to the fells from its dormer window and is a single room offering scope to become a home office/study.

This property is located in a quiet, yet convenient area with a small, flagged courtyard. Its rose garden makes it perfect for sitting outside in warmer weather to enjoy the peace and quiet. There are two outhouses here too. One contains an outdoor toilet and sink and the other offers storage for tools and equipment etc.

Leaving through the back gate, marked 109, is its allocated parking spot and opposite its terrace garden.

Don't miss the opportunity to make this fabulous property your second home/ next investment or permanent residence. Book a viewing today.
