Summary

| GUIDE PRICE £230,000 - £240,000 | NO CHAIN | PRIME LOCATION | Nestled at the top of a private drive in one of Sheffield's most sought-after suburbs, this beautifully refurbished Victorian terrace offers versatile living across three floors. Perfect for first-time buyers, professionals or families, this home combines classic period features with contemporary style and practicality.

Upon entering, a side entrance lobby has stairs to the first floor, either side are the ground floor rooms. The front facing living area benefits from tall ceilings and a central chimney breast, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. To the rear, the newly fitted, open-plan dining kitchen boasts stylish units, complemented by original built-in pantry cupboards that provide ample storage. This area grants access to a cellar which offers additional utility space.

The first floor hosts two flexible bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with a walk-in closet and a versatile second occasional room, currently used as a second lounge. Adjacent is a modern bathroom with built-in storage housing the wall-mounted and efficient Worcester Bosch boiler.

Upstairs on the second floor, the attic bedroom features a front-facing dormer window with stunning panoramic city views, along with an ensuite washroom, adding a touch of luxury and convenience.

Externally, the property benefits from off-road parking at the front, a low-maintenance raised garden perfect for alfresco dining and entertaining. Close to the back door is the base of an original outbuilding which provides suitable space for a bike shed or storage.
