Hazelhead Farm | Hawkswick

Skipton | BD23 5QA

Guide price £850,000

Hazelhead Farm is an imposing and exceptionally attractive detached stone-built property, prominently positioned in an idyllic and highly desirable setting within the picturesque village of Hawkswick, nestled in the heart of the Yorkshire Dales.

Dating back to 1839, the property has been sympathetically and meticulously restored, with great care taken to preserve a wealth of beautiful original character features, seamlessly blended with tasteful and practical enhancements throughout.

The accommodation is both generous and well-balanced, briefly comprising a welcoming central reception hall, cloakroom, elegant and inviting sitting room, formal dining room, charming farmhouse kitchen, and highly practical boot room, completing the well-planned ground floor layout.

To the first floor, there are five spacious and well-proportioned bedrooms, together with a family bathroom and separate shower room.

Externally, the property is set within substantial, mature and beautifully maintained grounds, with adjoining paddocks extending to approximately 6.4 acres. The setting is truly spectacular, enjoying a breathtaking and uninterrupted backdrop over rolling, open Yorkshire Dales countryside, providing far-reaching and ever-changing rural views.

Further benefits include a substantial barn/garage, additional lean-to barn, and extensive off-road parking, offering excellent versatility, storage and further potential.
