Property Description

An exceptional period terraced townhouse located on Chapel Street in the heart of Belgravia. This substantial residence provides five generously proportioned bedrooms and six bathrooms, arranged over multiple levels and supported by two elegant reception rooms, ideal for both family living and formal entertaining.

Finished to the highest international standards, the house benefits from a comprehensive range of luxury lifestyle and wellness amenities, including a private indoor swimming pool, air conditioning throughout, sauna and steam room, and a private cinema room, offering a self-contained living experience comparable to a luxury hotel or serviced residence.

Designed with international tenants in mind, the property includes a passenger lift, a dedicated staff bedroom, and a separate staff kitchen, ensuring privacy, comfort, and seamless household operation features particularly valued by overseas families and long-term tenants.

The home combines classic British architectural character with modern systems and finishes, delivering both prestige and practicality. Located moments from Hyde Park, Knightsbridge, and world-class retail and dining, this is a rare opportunity to secure a secure, discreet, and prestigious London residence in one of the capitals most exclusive addresses.
