A beautifully presented end-of-terrace four-bedroom property, this home enjoys an elevated position in the heart of historic Arundel. Refurbished to a high standard and finished with modern radiators and double glazing throughout, it combines generous accommodation with a light-filled, stylish design. Its central position, just moments from Arundel's shops, cafés, and historic landmarks, makes it a rare opportunity in a highly sought-after location.

A stepped approach leads to a spacious entrance hall with wooden flooring, giving access to a ground-floor cloakroom and the integral garage. The garage is well equipped with lights, power, an electric roller garage door, a water softener, and the boiler.

The open-plan kitchen and dining room forms the heart of the home, offering a superb range of fitted units with a Rangemaster cooker and integral dishwasher, space for American style fridge/freezer, while a separate utility cupboard housing washing machine and tumble drier. Bifold doors connect the dining area with the rear garden, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living.

On the first floor, a split-level landing with a built-in bookcase leads to a versatile fourth bedroom, currently used as a study with fitted cupboards. Three further double bedrooms, all with fitted wardrobes, are complemented by a modern family bathroom featuring a D-shaped bath with shower over, twin vanity basins, and WC. Additional storage is provided by an airing cupboard and further fitted cupboard.

The hard-landscaped rear garden, with attractive planting, lighting, and an outside tap, provides a private alfresco dining area ideal for entertaining.

Finished with modern radiators and double glazing throughout, this home is bright, stylish, and practical. Its central position, just moments from Arundel's shops, cafés, and historic landmarks, makes it a rare opportunity in a highly sought-after location.
