

1a Locarno Avenue, Luton, Beds, LU4 9EJ

Situated on the sought after Locarno Avenue, just a short drive from the Luton & Dunstable Hospital and within easy reach of Leagrave Train Station, this impressive three bedroom detached bungalow is the perfect blend of comfort, convenience, and space. Set back from the road with a large driveway providing ample off-road parking, the property immediately impresses, further complemented by the additional benefit of a garage/utility room. Inside, the accommodation is bright and well proportioned, featuring a generous lounge ideal for family living, a separate dining room that flows seamlessly into the conservatory overlooking the garden, and a well equipped kitchen. The master bedroom enjoys its own en-suite, while two further bedrooms and a family bathroom make this an ideal home for families or professionals. To the rear, the well maintained garden with decking and patio provides the perfect space for outdoor entertaining and relaxation. Available end of September on a part furnished basis, this attractive bungalow would make a fantastic long term home for those seeking space, style and an excellent location.
