Guide Price - £240,000 Freehold

A rare chance to acquire a pair of city centre cottages, currently set up as two office suites with potential to reinstate as two separate residential homes, or perhaps one large and flexible family home.

The Property

Converted in the 1980's from adjacent cottages into two office suites. The two are interconnected and at ground floor provide a communal meeting room, three offices, a reception area, communal toilets and a store room.

Served by one staircase, at first floor there are four more offices, together with a kitchen area/staff room. The total internal floor area of the two, according to the EPCs extends to 243 sqm.

The properties front directly onto the pavement and No. 10 has the benefit of a small enclosed level garden.

The properties are being sold with vacant possession.

Particulars & Plan

Whilst every care is taken in the preparation of these particulars, their accuracy is not guaranteed and they do not constitute any part of an offer or contract. Any intending purchaser/s must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to the correctness of these particulars.

Location

Edward Street is a prime city centre location, and these two properties are but a few steps from Truro Crown Court, and prominently positioned directly opposite a public car park. At the top of the road is a pedestrian access into the beautiful Victoria Gardens. At the bottom of the road is River Street, leading directly into the cobbled centre of Truro City where the breathtaking Cathedral, taking centre place to a huge and varied range of shopping and commercial amenities. Across the road, against the dramatic backdrop of the magnificent viaduct, is the eagerly awaited Pydar redevelopment site that is planned to provide many new homes and businesses. This really is a central and convenient setting be it for business or residential use.
