This stunning three bedroom home on Grove Road in Hounslow has been fully refurbished throughout and is ready to move straight into. Finished to a high standard, the property offers modern living with a bright rear extension featuring a brand new kitchen complete with integrated appliances, along with three stylish bathrooms. The house has been completely updated with new electrics, plumbing, radiators, flooring and windows, as well as a new boiler and a full rewire to meet current regulations. The walls have all been replastered, giving the property a fresh and modern feel. A new roof has been fitted across the main house, extension and garden room, while external wall insulation has been added for improved energy efficiency. The garden room also benefits from underfloor heating, making it a perfect home office or extra living space. With all the hard work already done, this beautiful home is ideal for families looking for a stylish property in a convenient Hounslow location.

Situated in the heart of Hounslow, this home offers excellent connections to the city with Hounslow Central and Hounslow West Underground stations just a short walk away. Families benefit from nearby reputable schools such as Hounslow Heath Junior School and Lampton School, while local parks, shops, cafes, and leisure facilities provide everything needed for convenient living.
