DESCRIPTION

Stryt Lydan is an impressive traditional farmhouse which has undergone a comprehensive programme of renovation, creating a substantial and highly adaptable country home extending to approximately 4,205 sq ft. The accommodation retains much of the building's original character, including exposed timbers, traditional fireplaces, panelled doors, quarry-tiled floors and a handsome staircase, complemented by oak and parquet flooring and well-appointed bathrooms.

The house stands within established gardens, which lies to the fore of the property, on the rural fringe of Penley, enjoying attractive views across the surrounding countryside. A broad gravelled approach provides generous parking, accompanied by a detached double garage.

SITUATION

The property occupies a pleasant position on the outskirts of Penley, where the village gives way to open farmland and an attractive rural landscape. The surrounding area is noted for its productive farmland, quiet lanes and accessible rural character, with good connections towards North Shropshire, Cheshire and the wider road network.

Rail networks are available locally in Whitchurch, Ruabon, and Crewe, with the latter offering a direct line to Chester (approx. 20 mins), Manchester (approx. 40 mins), and London (circa 90 mins).

SCHOOLING

The area is served by a choice of primary and secondary schooling within Penley and the surrounding towns and villages. A wider selection of state and independent schools is available in Ellesmere, Whitchurch, Wrexham, Oswestry and Chester.
