The Property

Situated in the heart of Salisbury and enjoying attractive views across to Wyndham Park, 68 College Street is an end-of-terrace Victorian property offering spacious accommodation arranged over three floors.

The property is entered via a small porch leading into the entrance hall. To the left is door leading into a generous sitting/dining room, a light and airy dual-aspect space featuring an attractive open brick fireplace with a wooden beam mantel and characterful beam in the ceiling. There is ample room for both living and dining furniture.

A doorway leads through to the kitchen, which is fitted with wooden units and tiled worktops. The gas boiler is located here and a window overlooks the rear garden. There is space for a washing machine, gas cooker and fridge freezer. While functional, the kitchen would benefit from being updated.

A side door from the kitchen provides access to the patio and rear garden. Returning to the hallway, stairs rise to the first-floor landing, which is bright and welcoming. On this floor is a spacious family bathroom with both a bath and separate shower cubicle. There are two good-sized bedrooms. The rear bedroom is currently used as a home office, while the front bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes and views towards the park.

A further staircase leads to an impressive principal bedroom occupying the second floor. This spacious room enjoys dual-aspect windows and attractive views to both the front and rear of the property.

Overall, the property requires modernisation but offers excellent potential and generous accommodation across three levels, making it an appealing opportunity within this sought-after Victorian terrace.
