Drybrook is a village located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire, England. Situated in the western part of the Forest of Dean, it is about 3 miles north of the town of Cinderford.

The village offers a rural atmosphere, making it an ideal location for those seeking a quieter lifestyle. The surrounding forest and woodlands provide opportunities for walking, cycling, and exploring nature. The village is located near the start of the famous Wysis Way long-distance footpath, which offers scenic views and connects to other parts of the Forest of Dean.

The village has a strong community spirit and a range of amenities to serve its residents. These include a chemist, general stores, fish and chip shop, builder's merchant, doctor's surgery, nursery school, primary school, petrol station with well-stocked shop, garage & MOT centre, public house, social club, and a bus service to Gloucester and surrounding areas.

Sports enthusiasts can enjoy the local rugby club, which has a strong presence in the village and actively engages in the community.
