Having originally been constructed as a Baptist Chapel in the mid-19th Century, this wonderful property was then adapted for use as an Institute and Reading Room for employees of the nearby Chivers' factory and most recently in 2004, converted into four spacious apartments.

8 Lawson Close is a first-floor apartment measuring 892.3 sqft/ 82.9 sqm and benefiting from its own private garden. Having recently been re-decorated throughout the communal areas, you enter through a light and airy communal entrance hall and head up to the first floor where the property is located. As you enter through the entrance to the property you are greeted by a large kitchen/dining room with cupboards at both eye level and base level and granite worksurfaces. The property has a large reception room measuring 16'11" in length and benefitting from double aspect windows which draw in copious amounts of natural light. The property benefits from two double bedrooms, each with built in storage. Two bathrooms are available within the property, and this includes an en-suite shower room to the master bedroom and a bathroom suite off the entrance hall which serves bedroom two.

Externally, The property benefits from its own parking space and designated visitor spaces within Lawson Close. There is additional storage in the bin and bike store. Unusually, this delightful home has its own private garden which is laid predominantly to gravel and has a large covered pergola providing a delightful seating area in the warmer months of the year.

Location

Histon is widely acknowledged as being one of the most sought-after villages north of Cambridge. Its particularly convenient location just 3 miles from Cambridge city centre adds to its popularity and communications are first class, the A14 and M11 being within a few minutes' drive. Histon is served by Cambridgeshire County Council's Guided Busway with an estimated journey time to the Science Park of approximately 3 minutes and is a 10-minute cycle. It is also conveniently located for Cambridge North railway station.

The village boasts many local facilities including excellent schooling for all ages from pre-school to sixth form, including the well regarded Impington Village College. Good local shopping is available in the village and there is a regular bus service to Cambridge. Girton Golf Club is also within a few minutes' drive.
