the location

Set in this pleasant, popular cul de sac location, in a great location offering the best of the convenience of the city, yet on the edge of the country. There is a convenience store at nearby Bitton, and local shops are a short drive at Oldland Common. The Bristol to Bath cycle path is readily accessible, and there are good local schools within walking distance. Bristol 6 miles Bath 6.5 miles just a thought...

Despite its modest, yet pleasant exterior, there is a deceptively spacious home offering great potential for the young or growing family. In a great location with a host of local facilities readily at hand.
