LOCATION & SITUATION

Birchgrove House enjoys a desirable position just a short drive from Usk Town, which includes many amenities such as a supermarket, shops, cafés and restaurants. The streets of Usk are steeped in history with many charming old buildings, a wonderful romantic ruined castle and a Town Trail which includes 28 sites of historic interest.

Usk also offers a number of local amenities, including a Co-operative, Doctors Surgery, Pharmacy, Post Office, Public Houses and it also benefits from a primary school.

Nearby is Abergavenny, this area is renowned for its beautiful, timeless appeal, characterised by undulating countryside, offering a rural idyll combined with excellent transport links to the rest of the country. Abergavenny is a thriving historic town which hosts the Annual Food Festival which attracts thousands of visitors every year as well as an indoor weekly market in the town centre. The town also offers a wide range of amenities such as doctors and dental surgeries, supermarkets, and many high street and boutique shops. The Angel Hotel in the centre of Abergavenny, is just a stone's throw from Abergavenny Castle and offers award winning afternoon teas. The well renowned restaurant, The Walnut Tree is also located on the outskirts of Abergavenny. Surrounding the town is stunning countryside and there are beautiful walks of the Brecon Beacons National Park.

There are good connections to the main road network with the historic border town of Monmouth being 16.5 miles away. Monmouth benefits from Haberdashers Monmouth School, Llangattock School Monmouth with Montessori Nursery, and state of the art Monmouth Comprehensive School. There are a variety of Primary Schools in the local area. Monmouth offers an up-market traditional shopping street, with boutique shops, Waitrose Supermarket, M&S Simply Food, The Savoy Theatre and an extensive range of recreational and leisure facilities. The River Wye flows through Monmouth and is a popular tourist attraction offering canoeing, kayaking and rowing.

An abundance of tourism and recreational activities exist within Monmouthshire and the surrounding counties, especially within the beautiful Wye Valley which is only a short drive away. The Brecon Beacons National Park is located to the North of Abergavenny, Tintern Abbey, Raglan Castle, the Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal and Chepstow Castle are all easily accessible.

THE PROPERTY

Occupying a delightful rural position surrounded by open countryside, Birchgrove House is a substantial detached family home offering over 2,190 sq.ft. of versatile accommodation arranged across three floors, complemented by extensive outbuildings and exceptional potential for a variety of lifestyle or business uses.

Having been a cherished family home for many years, the property presents an exciting opportunity for a new owner to modernise and create a superb country residence tailored to their own taste and requirements.

At the heart of the home is an outstanding triple-aspect kitchen, dining and family room, flooded with natural light and enjoying views over the surrounding gardens. Designed as a sociable living space, it offers ample room for cooking, dining and relaxing, with doors opening directly onto the gardens, creating a seamless connection between inside and out and making it ideal for entertaining or everyday family life. Complementing this impressive space are a welcoming sitting room, a separate reception room offering flexibility as a home office or snug, together with a utility room and cloakroom.

The accommodation extends across the first and second floors to provide six well-proportioned bedrooms, including a generous principal suite with en-suite shower room, together with a family bathroom, making the property perfectly suited to larger families, multi-generational living or those requiring dedicated work-from-home space.

OUTSIDE

Outside, Birchgrove House continues to impress with mature gardens enjoying a peaceful rural outlook. A substantial steel-framed outbuilding provides extensive workshop and storage facilities, while a further detached building offers exciting scope for conversion or enhancement, subject to the necessary planning consents. Whether for vehicle storage, hobby use, equestrian interests or the establishment of a rural-based business (subject to planning), the outbuildings provide exceptional versatility and further enhance the property's appeal.

Enjoying an enviable countryside setting whilst remaining within easy reach of nearby towns and transport links, Birchgrove House represents a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious six-bedroom home with significant potential, extensive outbuildings and the flexibility to create an exceptional rural lifestyle property.
