This endearing home dates back in part to the 1800s, but has been extended in both the 1990s and more recently in 2024 to create a fabulously spacious period home. The ample living space includes four reception rooms; a characterful snug with log burning stove, a formal dining room with wooden flooring and ceiling beams, and a large sitting room with views over the garden. A charming kitchen has slate flooring, oak worktops and an electric 'Rangemaster' oven. Two separate staircases lead up to the first floor where there are three generous double bedrooms, a luxurious family bathroom with attractive floor tiles, a roll top bath and a double width shower, plus there is a useful separate WC.

Outside, there are good sized private south facing landscaped gardens to the front and side that are predominantly laid to lawn with planted borders and a sun terrace, parking for a few cars and a 24ft long garage.
