DESCRIPTION

This well situated semi detached period house has been extensively refurbished for the current owners and is now beautifully presented throughout the comfortably proportioned accommodation. The property is being sold with the added advantage of no onward chain.

The accommodation comprises an entrance vestibule leading to the sitting room beyond which is the kitchen/dining room which is well equipped and leads to the utility room which also provides access to the garden and beyond which is the bathroom. The first floor comprises two double bedrooms.

There is a shallow front garden and to the rear the pretty courtyard garden provides the perfect spot in which to relax and dine alfresco. On street parking is readily available.

SITUATION

Park Road is a particularly sought after residential location, on level ground, to the south of the Royal Military Canal, moments from the seafront and a short, level walk from the busy High Street with its range of independent shops, boutiques, cafes and restaurants. The town also benefits from having 4 supermarkets (including Waitrose, Aldi and Sainsburys). There is a selection of sports and leisure facilities in the vicinity, including tennis, bowls, water sports, cricket, bowls and squash clubs etc. as well as The Hotel Imperial Leisure Complex and two golf courses. The property is also in the catchment area for Hythe Bay Primary School and only a short walk from it. The larger town of Folkestone is 5 miles and the Cathedral City of Canterbury 15 miles.

The area is convenient for communication to London and the Continent with the M20 motorway (Junction 11) 2½ miles distant, the Channel Tunnel Terminal 3 miles and a mainline railway station at Saltwood just over 2 miles away. High Speed trains to London St Pancras are available from both Ashford (10 miles) and Folkestone (Central and West). (All distances are approximate).
