Nestled in a picturesque location on the outskirts of Kirkby-in-Furness, this executive lodge-style home boasts extensive grounds and wonderful views across farmland towards Duddon Estuary and the distant fells and mountains. The contemporary styled accommodation features an impressive, multi-functional living area with bi-folding doors from the lounge area. There is a high-quality kitchen with appliances and a spacious dining area. There are options for three bedrooms including a master bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe and an en-suite shower room. There is also a separate laundry and cloakroom accessed from the hallway.
