The Apartment

A beautifully presented ground floor apartment set in the popular village of Bolingey. This period chapel conversion offers two double bedrooms, a modern bathroom and a spacious open-plan living room with a well-fitted kitchen.

The apartment forms part of a converted chapel in Bolingey, just a short distance from the centre of Perranporth. It provides easy access to the village's three-mile sandy beach, which is popular for surfing and family days out, as well as local shops, cafés and the South West Coast Path.

Inside, the open-plan living and kitchen area is bright and practical for day-to-day living and entertaining. Both bedrooms are good-sized doubles. The second bedroom includes a clever hidden retractable double bed with integrated bookshelf storage, making it flexible for guests or other uses. There's a modern bathroom, allocated parking, a communal clothes drying area and an outside space, perfect for BBQs or just to sit, relax and take in the rural views that surround you.

Bolingey is a quiet village with a friendly local pub nearby. Perranporth offers a good range of amenities while the surrounding countryside provides plenty of walks and outdoor activities.

This property suits buyers looking for low-maintenance living in a convenient coastal location, whether as a main home, second home or rental investment.
