LOCATION - Lincoln City Centre has undergone significant regeneration in recent years and now offers an excellent range of High Street shops, national retailers, banking and professional services, along with leisure attractions including the Odeon Lincoln multiplex cinema, an art gallery and the vibrant Brayford Pool marina with its waterfront restaurants and cafés. The city is also home to the highly regarded University of Lincoln, which educates approximately 11,500 students and provides extensive student accommodation. The university continues to expand its academic offering, including the introduction of a new medical school from September 2026. One of the city's most distinctive features is Steep Hill, a historic cobbled street leading up to the Bailgate area, renowned for its independent boutiques, cafés and bistros. This area is also home to the magnificent Lincoln Cathedral and Lincoln Castle, as well as attractions such as the Museum of Lincolnshire Life and Bishop Grosseteste University. On the southern side of the city lies the impressive International Bomber Command Centre, a major memorial and heritage site overlooking Lincoln.
