A rare opportunity to acquire a charming three-bedroom stable block conversion, beautifully renovated to combine timeless character with modern style.

Tucked away in an idyllic setting on the edge of Southborough Common, the home enjoys a wonderfully secluded position, reached via a short stroll along a bridle path – hidden from sight yet easily accessible.

Available to the market for the first time in over 45 years, properties of this nature and setting are exceedingly rare. This is a unique opportunity to purchase a home with genuine provenance, offering character, seclusion and modern comforts in equal measure.
