EXTERNALLY

The rear garden has been lovingly designed and planted and is level and enclosed. A stone flagged patio area leads to the lawn with a pebbled border. There are large raised shrub beds, outside tap, shed with storage behind and a further seating area. The patio goes around the side of the house, giving access to the frontage via a high level wooden gate.

The front garden has a shrub border and lawn and walkway to the front door. Approached from the main part of Tennyson Drive there is a tarmac pathway. To the side of the garden is the parking area and the en-bloc garages, vehicular access is available back onto the road.

DIRECTIONS

Turn into Tennyson Drive and number 26 is on the right, at the bottom of the small crescent on the left. There is a wall plate (by a silver birch tree) indicating this pedestrian access to numbers 8 to 34. Parking is available on the main part of the road. On the main road proceed along Tennyson Drive bending to the right and the parking area and garage can be found up the drive just prior to number 46 on your right.
