Location

Set in the heart of North Dorset's beautiful Blackmore Vale, Gillingham is a historic market town with Saxon origins and royal connections, once home to King John's hunting lodge. Today, Gillingham offers a warm and welcoming community, blending traditional character with modern living. The town provides a good range of supermarkets, independent shops and well-regarded local schools, with respected independent schools also within easy reach. Residents benefit from excellent local amenities including healthcare services, sports clubs, a library and a modern leisure centre. Gillingham is well connected, with direct rail services to London and Exeter, while the nearby A30 and A303 provide convenient road links. Surrounded by countryside yet close to everyday amenities, this location offers a peaceful setting within walking distance of the town centre and all that Gillingham has to offer.
