THE PROPERTY

8 Agar Road is a charming Victorian townhouse situated just a stone's throw from Truro's city centre. The property boasts many character features throughout with original fireplaces, exposed ceiling beams, high ceilings and feature tiled flooring. The property has been modernised and upgraded during the current ownership with the accommodation set across four floors and in all, it comprises; entrance vestibule, hallway, reception room/bedroom, study, family bathroom with two bedrooms on the first floor and a further bedroom to the second floor. The lower ground level incorporates the living quarters and includes; kitchen, sitting room, dining room and a shower room. Externally, the dwelling has a fully enclosed rear garden enjoying a sunny aspect throughout the course of the day and evening. There is also rear access. 8 Agar Road is the perfect family home, situated within the catchment for Archbishop Benson Primary School and Penair Secondary School.

TRURO
