SALES & LETTINGS

A handsome Edwardian (1904) bay-fronted terrace, perfectly positioned just South of Leamington Spa's train station and vibrant town centre. This elegant and characterful home showcases period charm with exposed floorboards, fitted cabinets, and generous living spaces. The accommodation comprises an entrance hallway, a through lounge diner, a well-proportioned kitchen, a cellar, three bedrooms, and a stylish bathroom. The boarded loft features a Velux window and pull-down ladder, offering excellent storage. Outside, the landscaped rear garden includes a patio and low-maintenance artificial lawn. Ideally situated for easy access to the town centre, M40, scenic canal walks, and stunning local parks—all just a 10-minute stroll from the station. The property also comes with architect-designed plans for a beautiful glass side-return kitchen extension, awaiting planning approval, offering exciting scope to enhance this already impressive home.
