Situation

Waddingham is a charming and traditional Lincolnshire village nestled in the heart of the countryside, offering a peaceful rural lifestyle with the convenience of nearby towns. Located between Gainsborough and Scunthorpe, and just a short drive from Lincoln, Waddingham is ideal for those seeking a quieter pace of life without being isolated. The village has a warm and welcoming community, with local amenities including a well-regarded primary school, a village hall and a playing field. Surrounded by open farmland and picturesque walking routes, it's a haven for nature lovers and those who enjoy outdoor pursuits. Waddingham is well-connected via local road networks, with regular bus services and easy access to the A15, making commuting simple. The nearby market town of Kirton Lindsey offers further amenities including shops, cafés, a doctors' surgery, and a train station with direct links to Lincoln and Doncaster.
