About the property

A substantial detached double fronted four bedroom family house, built in 1976 by Messrs Tudor Jerkins, a well known private local builder, with cavity elevations in white render, inset with replacement PVC double glazed windows, all beneath a pitched tiled roof. This deceptively spacious traditional modern home, occupies a delightful position set back in a select close, comprising detached dwellings, away from busy passing traffic, yet well placed for access to Radyr Village. with its many improvements this bright and versatile property provides 1633 square feet, well designed with a large and impressive fully fitted modern open plan kitchen and dining room (29'2 x 13'3 max), with stylish high gloss units with slim line handles and integrated appliances, also equipped with French doors that open onto a level and enclosed rear garden with a sandstone sun terrace. Age entrance hall benefits a down stairs cloak room, whilst an extended through lounge and family room (26'0 x 13'9 max) provides ample living space. The Garage was converted into a home office-utility room in 2019, independently approached from the hall and the kitchen. There are four good sized bedrooms and two bathroom, one being ensuite to the generous master bedroom (16'3 x 11'4).The property benefits gas heating, a stylish modern entrance drive, and a well planned and fully enclosed level rear garden. A very impressive family home, within walking distance is Radyr Village

Accommodation

Radyr Village

This substantial home occupies a delightful position fronting a private residential close, away from busy passing traffic, yet well placed within walking distance to Old Radyr Village. Radyr benefits its own railway station, a small but well stocked shopping centre, whilst there are excellent local primary schools and the highly regarded Radyr High School. The shopping centre includes a post office, an Italian Restaurant and a Micropub. Within Radyr there is a Tennis Club, a Medical Centre, a Golf club, a cricket club and the Radyr Train Station which has been recently upgraded to include disabled access and is part of the New South Wales Metro integrated transport network being developed.

Excellent schools are available within Radyr, including Radyr High school off Heol Isaf, Bryn Deri Primary School on Cae'r Graig, Radyr Primary School which offers a breakfast club and an after-school club. In addition, there are well regarded nursery facilities within the Village including Cylch Meithrin Radur and Phentrepoeth Nursery located in Old Church rooms, Park Road, a welsh nursery for children aged 2-5. There is also a local library on Park Road and Mother & Toddler Group facilities.
