Occupying an attractive position within a modern development in the highly sought-after and historic village of Warkworth, this impressive double-fronted four-bedroom detached home offers spacious family accommodation, a sunny rear garden and the increasingly desirable advantage of a double garage and double driveway.

Warkworth remains one of Northumberland's most popular coastal villages, renowned for its medieval castle, beautiful riverside walks and excellent local amenities, whilst also being conveniently placed for the neighbouring towns of Amble, Alnwick and Morpeth.

The property enjoys a particularly pleasant setting with a more open aspect to the front, enhancing the sense of space and providing an attractive outlook. Internally, the accommodation has been designed with modern family living in mind. The dual-aspect living room is a bright and welcoming reception space, featuring a stylish media wall with integrated storage and ample room for relaxation and entertaining.

At the heart of the home is a superb dining kitchen, fitted with a range of contemporary units and centred around a breakfasting peninsula, creating an ideal social hub for family life. A separate utility room provides additional practicality and useful storage space.

One of the standout features of the property is the versatility of the additional family room, which lends itself equally well as a playroom, snug, formal dining room or dedicated home office for those working remotely.

The first floor offers four well-proportioned bedrooms, with two benefiting from their own en-suite shower rooms, whilst the remaining bedrooms are served by the family bathroom.

Externally, the sunny rear garden provides an excellent space for outdoor dining and entertaining, incorporating a patio seating area and gated access to the side pedestrian door of the double garage. Behind the rear garden, a generous double driveway provides ample off-street parking and leads directly to the detached double garage.

Combining generous living space, versatile accommodation and a prime village location close to the Northumberland coast, this is a superb family home that is sure to attract considerable interest.
