The Gatehouse, LOWER FARM MEWS

Tittleshall, Kings Lynn

GUIDE PRICE: £500,000-£550,000. This impressive four-bedroom home forms part of Lower Farm Mews, an exclusive collection of just nine individual properties created around a restored farmstead courtyard in the Norfolk countryside. The Gatehouse has been thoughtfully designed to combine the character and charm of a traditional Norfolk property with the comfort, efficiency and specification of a new home, offering generous single-level accommodation, a substantial open-plan kitchen, dining and living space, a separate lounge, private garden and a high-quality finish throughout. The peaceful edge-of-village setting provides a wonderful opportunity to enjoy the countryside while remaining well placed for access to nearby market towns and the wider Norfolk region.

Location

Situated in the peaceful village of Tittleshall in the heart of rural West Norfolk, Lower Farm Mews enjoys a quiet countryside setting surrounded by open fields and attractive Norfolk scenery. Tittleshall has a close knit village community, with a village hall, church, bowls club, cinema club, and Millennium Green with a children's play area.

For everyday amenities, the nearby village of Litcham is around two miles away and offers a village shop, pub, schools, and a medical centre, while the market towns of Fakenham, Dereham, and Swaffham provide a wider selection of shops, supermarkets, leisure facilities, and services. The area is also well placed for exploring the countryside, with Litcham Common and numerous local walking routes nearby. The North Norfolk coast, including Wells next the Sea, is within easy reach, while
