Description

The layout is a real strength of this home. The bay fronted living room provides a comfortable separate reception space, while the generous family room to the rear opens directly onto the garden and works perfectly for everyday living. At the centre of the ground floor is the open plan kitchen/dining area, creating a sociable hub with a natural flow between the main living spaces. A smart downstairs shower room adds further practicality. The first floor provides three bedrooms, all arranged off the central landing. As seen in many neighbouring homes along Miles Road, the loft offers excellent potential to create additional accommodation, subject to the usual planning and building regulations. This gives buyers the opportunity to increase the footprint further over time if desired.

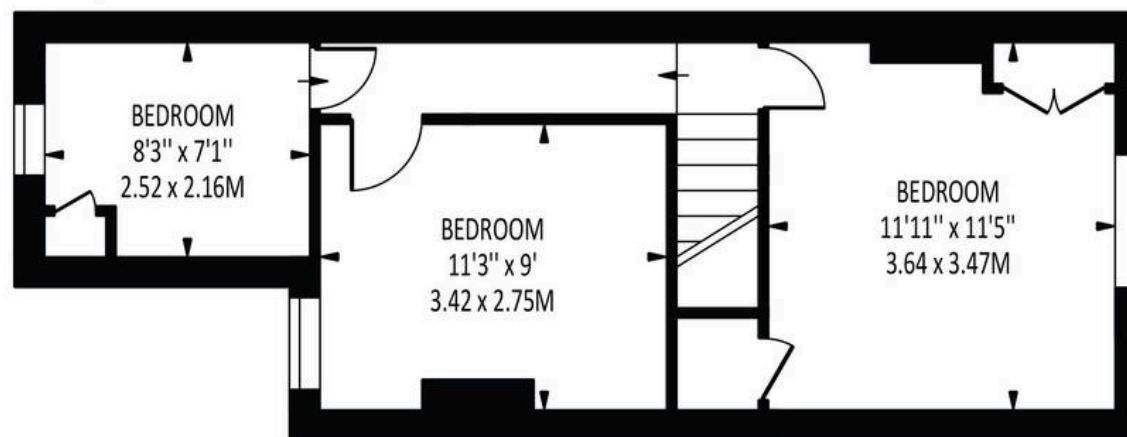

Outside, the property enjoys a well established rear garden extending to approximately 93ft in length, with a paved terrace directly adjoining the house and a mature, leafy outlook beyond. The space offers plenty of room for outdoor dining, gardening and family use, while the side access adds everyday convenience. Miles Road remains one of Epsom's most consistently popular Victorian residential roads, thanks to its attractive period homes and highly practical position close to the town centre. Epsom railway station is approximately 0.4 miles away and provides regular services towards London Waterloo, Victoria and London Bridge, making the location particularly appealing to commuters. The High Street and Ashley Centre offer a wide range of shops, cafes, restaurants and leisure facilities, while the surrounding area is also well served by a selection of highly regarded state and independent schools. Epsom Downs, home of the world famous Derby, is also within easy reach, providing extensive open space and countryside walks. For motorists, the A24, A3 and M25 are all accessible, with both Heathrow and Gatwick airports within driving distance. Council Tax band: D
