Situated in this desirable cul de sac in the centre of Rhoose is this extended bungalow which offers versatile accommodation and tremendous potential. Currently, the bungalow is laid out with accommodation accessed via an entrance porch/hall leading to a living room, two double bedrooms, bathroom and kitchen. The original third bedroom now flows into the extension which was added to the bungalow in 1971 and comprises a further reception area and which in turn leads to a sun room/conservatory. The loft area has been converted to a handy hobbies/office area and accessed via pull down ladder from the hall.

Externally, there is a front garden, long drive, garage and delightful rear gardens with apple tree, greenhouse and lovely level lawn ideal for children to play etc.

The property has gas central heating and double glazed windows.

Entrance Hall

Accessed from the side via an aluminium glazed door and initially via a porch. A glazed internal door access the hall with matching doors leading off to the living room, kitchen, two bedrooms and bathroom (further access via the original third bedroom leads to a rear extension which offers a large living space with sun room off). Additionally, a pull down ladder leads up to a converted dormer style loft space.
