🏠 EPC Rating D

Having been a much loved family home for the past 22 years, this impressive four-bedroom detached residence occupies a generous mature plot in one of Pewsey's most established and sought after residential locations. Beautifully presented throughout, it offers spacious, well-balanced accommodation, superb gardens and a versatile detached home office.

An entrance porch leads into a welcoming reception hall, with attractive wood flooring extending throughout much of the ground floor. To the front, the spacious sitting room is centred around a feature wood burning stove, while to the rear is the heart of the home is a superb open plan kitchen, dining and family room with a contemporary log burner and French doors opening onto the rear patio. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of units, granite work surfaces, two breakfast bars and integrated appliances. A generous utility room and contemporary ground floor shower room complete the accommodation.

Upstairs are four well proportioned bedrooms arranged around a central landing, three of which benefit from fitted wardrobes, together with a well appointed family bathroom, providing flexible accommodation for families, guests or home working.

Outside, a substantial gravelled driveway provides parking for numerous vehicles and leads to the detached double garage, which benefits from a staircase to a fully boarded loft offering excellent storage or potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary consents.

The mature rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn with established trees, shrubs and well stocked borders, creating a private setting. A generous paved patio provides the perfect space for outdoor dining and summer entertaining, while a fully insulated detached home office with heating, power and internet connection offers an ideal workspace away from the house.

The perfect family home.

Location

Pewsey is a charming and historic village nestled in the heart of Wiltshire's picturesque countryside. Situated within the North Wessex Downs National Landscape, it offers a perfect blend of rural tranquillity and community spirit, with independent shops, a supermarket, cafés, pubs, and a leisure centre with a swimming pool, along with several primary and secondary schools.

Dating back to Saxon times, Pewsey retains much of its traditional character, with scenic walks along the Kennet & Avon Canal and open access to surrounding downland, and hosts the renowned annual Pewsey Carnival. Despite its peaceful setting it is extremely well connected, with its own railway station offering direct services to London Paddington in just over an hour, and easy road access to Marlborough, Salisbury and Swindon.
