6-bed detached house

Beehive Lane

This modern detached family home is set over three floors with an impressive 2,408 SQFT of internal space and is conveniently situated within walking distance of Galleywood Common and opposite Chelmer Park. There are three reception rooms, providing ample space for entertaining, six double bedrooms and three bath/shower rooms. Outside, there is a block paved driveway and double garage to the side and a true highlight of the property is the 176ft garden, offering plenty of space for children to play and adults to entertain or simply kick back and relax. There is also a private and separate vegetable garden perfect for those with green fingers, allowing you to grow your own produce just steps from your kitchen.

Beehive Lane is situated on the outskirts of the City of Chelmsford where the villages of Great Baddow and Galleywood merge, offering excellent connecting road links to the City centre, A12 and A130. The village of Galleywood has a local parade of shops for your everyday needs, there is also a primary school and nearby public houses. There are plenty of nearby country and open field walks including Galleywood Common which is a short walk away and hugely popular with families, dog walkers and mountain bikers. Chelmer Park is located opposite with quality sports facilities. There are football pitches, netball, tennis courts and an outdoor gym to name a few
