Sargent House, Lower Green,, Broadway WR12 7BU

Broadway, often referred to as the "Jewel of the Cotswolds," is a quintessential English village nestled in the rolling Worcestershire countryside. With its wide, historic High Street lined with honey-coloured stone cottages, boutique shops, tearooms, and galleries, Broadway offers the charm of a traditional Cotswold village while providing an exceptional standard of living. It's a destination known for its beauty, heritage, and vibrant yet relaxed community atmosphere.

The town offers a range of high-quality amenities, including independent stores, artisan bakeries, a post office, and a well-regarded local butcher. For everyday essentials, the nearest major supermarket is a large Waitrose located in Evesham (around 15 minutes' drive), with additional shopping options including Tesco and M&S Food. Broadway itself is home to several excellent pubs and restaurants, such as The Lygon Arms, a historic coaching inn offering fine dining, Russell's of Broadway for modern British cuisine, and Broadway Deli Café, a popular local spot for breakfast and lunch.

Families will find Broadway well-served by education options. Broadway First School is located within the village and rated "Good" by Ofsted. For older children, Chipping Campden School is a well-regarded secondary option, known for strong academic performance and a broad curriculum. Additionally, there is a direct bus service to Alcester Grammar School and Brendon Middle School, providing convenient access to selective and middle school education outside the village. Nearby private schools include The King's School in Worcester, Cheltenham College, Malvern College, and Dean Close School, all within a 30-45 minute drive.

Broadway is ideally situated for exploring the wider Cotswolds and beyond. Charming nearby villages include Snowhill, Stanton, Chipping Campden, and Winchcombe, all offering scenic walks and local heritage sites. The larger towns of Cheltenham and Stratford-upon-Avon are within 25-30 minutes' drive.
