Occupying an exceptional 0.22-acre wraparound plot within a prime residential setting in Wem, this beautifully improved detached bungalow offers approximately 1,400 sq ft of thoughtfully reimagined single-storey living. Substantially enhanced by the present owners, the property combines generous proportions with contemporary styling, delivering a home that feels both refined and effortlessly practical. At its heart is an impressive open-plan kitchen and living environment designed for modern lifestyles, perfectly balancing everyday comfort with entertaining capability. Quality finishes, excellent bedroom proportions and intelligently arranged circulation space ensure a natural flow throughout, while gas smart central heating, double glazing and a characterful wood-burning stove provide warmth and efficiency year-round. Externally, mature gardens wrap elegantly around the bungalow, creating privacy, excellent sunlight orientation and a rare sense of space seldom found within town boundaries.

The interior layout has been carefully designed to versatile separate living and sleeping areas, enhancing both privacy and practicality. A welcoming central reception hall provides natural division, leading to a superb principal living room filled with natural light and offering a comfortable retreat.

The outstanding open-plan kitchen and family living space extends across much of the rear elevation, forming the true hub of the home. Designed with entertaining in mind, it accommodates dining and relaxation with ease. The contemporary kitchen is fitted to a high standard, offering generous workspace and storage, complemented by a separate utility room that discreetly manages everyday function. Bedrooms are well proportioned and thoughtfully positioned, served by beautifully appointed bath and shower facilities, a third double size bedroom which is currently used as an office.

The bungalow sits comfortably within its mature plot, with gardens unfolding to all sides and creating a strong sense of privacy and openness. Lawned areas combine with established planting and seating terraces, offering continual interest throughout the seasons. The wraparound design ensures excellent sunlight orientation, making the outdoor space ideal for relaxation and entertaining. The generous proportions of the plot are particularly rare within town limits, enhancing both outlook and long-term appeal.

Situated within one of North Shropshire's most respected traditional market towns, the property benefits from the excellent amenities available in Wem. The town offers independent shops, supermarkets, cafés, medical facilities and leisure amenities supporting a thriving community atmosphere. Commuters are well served by Wem railway station, providing direct connections towards Shrewsbury and Crewe, with onward national links including services to London and the North West. Schooling is particularly well regarded, notably Thomas Adams School, further enhancing the area's appeal for families and relocating buyers alike.
